How to Use This Book 이 책 사용법

1. Look first. Use the illustration to recall the idea before reading the English meaning.
2. Say the word. Read the Hangul aloud, using the romanization only as a temporary guide.
3. Read the example. Use the complete usage or lexical-learning sentence to review the highlighted expression.
4. Review actively. Check the chapter list, then complete the practice questions without looking back.

About the vocabulary selection

This volume selects 2,000 Grade-B entries from the National Institute of Korean Language's Korean Learning Vocabulary List. Homonym numbers in the source are used for editorial tracking and are not shown as part of the learner-facing headword.

Independent publication

This is an independently organized learning resource with original layout, learner-focused explanations, examples, and illustrations. It is not an official NIKL publication and does not claim equivalence to a specific TOPIK level.
